Declaration of Intent
INTERDISCIPLINARY MINOR IN ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS
College of Arts & Sciences, Marquette University

Student Name ________________________________________________________________

ID # ___________________________ Expected Month/Year of Graduation _______________

College or School at Marquette ___________________________________________________

Major/s _______________________________________________________________________

Other Minor/s ___________________________________________________________________

Semester and Year INEE Required Courses Completed:

______________________ Biology 040 Ecology or 140 Advanced Ecology (requires instructor's consent to waive pre-requisites)

______________________ Economics 163 Environmental & Natural Resource Economics (requires 43 or 44 and instructor's consent;

______________________ Philosophy 132 Environmental Philosophy (requires 050 and Junior standing)

______________________ Physics 009 Earth & Environmental Physics or Civil Engineering 150 Environmental Engineering (CEEN majors)

______________________ Theology 171 Foundations for Ecological Ethics (requires DOI, a second level course, and Junior standing)

______________________ ARSC 110 INEE Capstone Seminar (requires instructor's consent)

Semester and Year Complementary (not required) Courses Completed:

______________________ Journalism 173 Health, Science, and Environmental Journalism

______________________ Anthropology 110 Human Geography

______________________ ARSC 120 Environment and The City

______________________ Chemistry 008 Chemistry and The World

______________________ English 198 Special Topics: Literature and the Environment

______________________ Theology 170 Theology and the Natural Sciences

Local Address ___________________________________________________________________

Telephone Number ___________________________________________________________________

E-Mail Address ___________________________________________________________________

Student Signature __________________________________________________________

Date _________________________________

Return to Dr. Jame Schaefer, INEE Director, Theology Department, 115 Coughlin Hall
schaefj@marquette.edu; www.inee.mu.edu
Declaration of Intent
INTERDISCIPLINARY MINOR IN ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS
College of Arts & Sciences, Marquette University

Student Name

ID # __________________________ Expected Month/Year of Graduation ____________________________

College or School at Marquette

Major/s

Other Minor/s

Semester and Year INEE Required Courses Completed:

_____________________ Biology 040 Ecology or 140 Advanced Ecology (requires instructor’s consent to waive pre-requisites)

_____________________ Economics 163 Environmental & Natural Resource Economics (requires 43 or 44 and instructor’s consent;

_____________________ Philosophy 132 Environmental Philosophy (requires 050 and Junior standing)

_____________________ Physics 009 Earth & Environmental Physics or Civil Engineering 150 Environmental Engineering (CEEN majors)

_____________________ Theology 171 Foundations for Ecological Ethics (requires 001, a second level course, and Junior standing)

_____________________ ARSC 110 INEE Capstone Seminar (requires instructor’s consent)

Semester and Year Complementary (not required) Courses Completed:

_____________________ Journalism 173 Health, Science, and Environmental Journalism

_____________________ Anthropology 110 Human Geography

_____________________ ARSC 120 Environment and The City

_____________________ Chemistry 008 Chemistry and The World

_____________________ English 198 Special Topics: Literature and the Environment

_____________________ Theology 170 Theology and the Natural Sciences

Local Address

Telephone Number

E-Mail Address

Student Signature ____________________________________________________________

Date _________________________________________________

Return to Dr. Jame Schaefer, INEE Director, Theology Department, 115 Coughlin Hall
schaefj@marquette.edu; www.inee.mu.edu
Declaration of Intent
INTERDISCIPLINARY MINOR IN ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS
College of Arts & Sciences, Marquette University

Student Name ______________________________________________________________________________________________________

ID # ________________________________________  Expected Month/Year of Graduation _______________________________________

College or School at Marquette ______________________________________________________________________________________

Major/s __________________________________________________________________________________________________________

Other Minor/s _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Semester and Year INEE Required Courses Completed:

______________ Biology 040 Ecology or 140 Advanced Ecology (requires instructor’s consent to waive pre-requisites)

______________ Economics 163 Environmental & Natural Resource Economics (requires 43 or 44 and instructor’s consent;

______________ Philosophy 132 Environmental Philosophy (requires 050 and Junior standing)

______________ Physics 009 Earth & Environmental Physics or Civil Engineering 150 Environmental Engineering (CEEN majors)

______________ Theology 171 Foundations for Ecological Ethics (requires DOI, a second level course, and Junior standing)

______________ ARSC 110 INEE Capstone Seminar (requires instructor’s consent)

Semester and Year Complementary (not required) Courses Completed:

______________ Journalism 173 Health, Science, and Environmental Journalism

______________ Anthropology 110 Human Geography

______________ ARSC 120 Environment and The City

______________ Chemistry 008 Chemistry and The World

______________ English 198 Special Topics: Literature and the Environment

______________ Theology 170 Theology and the Natural Sciences

Local Address ______________________________________________________________________________________________________

Telephone Number __________________________________________________________________________________________________

E-Mail Address _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Student Signature ____________________________________________________________  Date _________________________________________________

Return to Dr. Jame Schaefer, INEE Director, Theology Department, 115 Coughlin Hall
schaeferj@marquette.edu; www.inee.mu.edu
Decloration of Intent
INTERDISCIPLINARY MINOR IN ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS
College of Arts & Sciences, Marquette University

Student Name ______________________________________________________________________________________________________
ID # ________________________________________ Expected Month/Year of Graduation _______________________________________
College or School at Marquette ________________________________________________________________________________________
Major/s __________________________________________________________________________________________________________
Other Minor/s _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Semester and Year INEE Required Courses Completed:
_____________________ Biology 040 Ecology or 140 Advanced Ecology (requires instructor’s consent to waive pre-requisites)
_____________________ Economics 163 Environmental & Natural Resource Economics (requires 43 or 44 and instructor’s consent;
_____________________ Philosophy 132 Environmental Philosophy (requires 050 and Junior standing)
_____________________ Physics 009 Earth & Environmental Physics or Civil Engineering 150 Environmental Engineering (CEEN majors)
_____________________ Theology 171 Foundations for Ecological Ethics (requires 001, a second level course, and Junior standing)
_____________________ ARSC 110 INEE Capstone Seminar (requires instructor’s consent)

Semester and Year Complementary (not required) Courses Completed:
_____________________ Journalism 173 Health, Science, and Environmental Journalism
_____________________ Anthropology 110 Human Geography
_____________________ ARSC 120 Environment and The City
_____________________ Chemistry 008 Chemistry and The World
_____________________ English 198 Special Topics: Literature and the Environment
_____________________ Theology 170 Theology and the Natural Sciences

Local Address ______________________________________________________________________________________________________
Telephone Number __________________________________________________________________________________________________
E-Mail Address _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Student Signature ____________________________________________________________ Date _________________________________________________

Return to Dr. Jame Schaefer, INEE Director, Theology Department, 115 Coughlin Hall
schaeferj@marquette.edu; www.inee.mu.edu
Declaration of Intent
INTERDISCIPLINARY MINOR IN ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS
College of Arts & Sciences, Marquette University

Student Name  ______________________________________________________________________________________________________

ID # ____________________________________  Expected Month/Year of Graduation _______________________________________

College or School at Marquette ________________________________________________________________________________________

Major/s  __________________________________________________________________________________________________________

Other Minor/s  _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Semester and Year INEE Required Courses Completed:

_____________________ Biology 040 Ecology or 140 Advanced Ecology (requires instructor’s consent to waive pre-requisites)

_____________________ Economics 163 Environmental & Natural Resource Economics (requires 43 or 44 and instructor’s consent;

_____________________ Philosophy 132 Environmental Philosophy (requires 050 and Junior standing)

_____________________ Physics 009 Earth & Environmental Physics or Civil Engineering 150 Environmental Engineering (CEEN majors)

_____________________ Theology 171 Foundations for Ecological Ethics (requires DOI, a second level course, and Junior standing)

_____________________ ARSC 110 INEE Capstone Seminar (requires instructor’s consent)

Semester and Year Complementary (not required) Courses Completed:

_____________________ Journalism 173 Health, Science, and Environmental Journalism

_____________________ Anthropology 110 Human Geography

_____________________ ARSC 120 Environment and The City

_____________________ Chemistry 008 Chemistry and The World

_____________________ English 198 Special Topics: Literature and the Environment

_____________________ Theology 170 Theology and the Natural Sciences

Local Address  ______________________________________________________________________________________________________

Telephone Number  __________________________________________________________________________________________________

E-Mail Address  _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Student Signature ____________________________________________________________

Date _________________________________________________

Return to Dr. Jame Schaefer, INEE Director, Theology Department, 115 Coughlin Hall

schaeferj@marquette.edu  www.inee.mu.edu
Declaration of Intent
INTERDISCIPLINARY MINOR IN ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS
College of Arts & Sciences, Marquette University

Student Name ______________________________________________________________________________________________________

ID # ________________________________________  Expected Month/Year of Graduation _______________________________________

College or School at Marquette ________________________________________________________________________________________

Major/s __________________________________________________________________________________________________________

Other Minor/s _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Semester and Year INEE Required Courses Completed:

_______________ Biology 040 Ecology or 140 Advanced Ecology (requires instructor’s consent to waive pre-requisites)

_______________ Economics 163 Environmental & Natural Resource Economics (requires 43 or 44 and instructor’s consent;

_______________ Philosophy 132 Environmental Philosophy (requires 050 and Junior standing)

_______________ Physics 009 Earth & Environmental Physics or Civil Engineering 150 Environmental Engineering (CEEN majors)

_______________ Theology 171 Foundations for Ecological Ethics (requires DOI, a second level course, and Junior standing)

_______________ ARSC 110 INEE Capstone Seminar (requires instructor’s consent)

Semester and Year Complementary (not required) Courses Completed:

_______________ Journalism 173 Health, Science, and Environmental Journalism

_______________ Anthropology 110 Human Geography

_______________ ARSC 120 Environment and The City

_______________ Chemistry 008 Chemistry and The World

_______________ English 198 Special Topics: Literature and the Environment

_______________ Theology 170 Theology and the Natural Sciences

Local Address ______________________________________________________________________________________________________

Telephone Number __________________________________________________________________________________________________

E-Mail Address _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Student Signature ____________________________________________________________

Date _________________________________________________

Return to Dr. Jame Schaefer, INEE Director, Theology Department, 115 Coughlin Hall
schaefj@marquette.edu: www.inee.mu.edu
Declaration of Intent
INTERDISCIPLINARY MINOR IN ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS
College of Arts & Sciences, Marquette University

Student Name ______________________________________________________________________________________________________

ID # ________________________________________  Expected Month/Year of Graduation _______________________________________

College or School at Marquette _______________________________________________________________________________________

Major/s __________________________________________________________________________________________________________

Other Minor/s _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Semester and Year INEE Required Courses Completed:

_____________________  Biology 040 Ecology or 140 Advanced Ecology (requires instructor's consent to waive pre-requisites)

_____________________  Economics 163 Environmental & Natural Resource Economics (requires 43 or 44 and instructor's consent;

_____________________  Philosophy 132 Environmental Philosophy (requires 050 and Junior standing)

_____________________  Physics 009 Earth & Environmental Physics or Civil Engineering 150 Environmental Engineering (CEEN majors)

_____________________  Theology 171 Foundations for Ecological Ethics (requires DOI, a second level course, and Junior standing)

_____________________  ARSC 110 INEE Capstone Seminar (requires instructor's consent)

Semester and Year Complementary (not required) Courses Completed:

_____________________  Journalism 173 Health, Science, and Environmental Journalism

_____________________  Anthropology 110 Human Geography

_____________________  ARSC 120 Environment and The City

_____________________  Chemistry 008 Chemistry and The World

_____________________  English 198 Special Topics: Literature and the Environment

_____________________  Theology 170 Theology and the Natural Sciences

Local Address ______________________________________________________________________________________________________

Telephone Number __________________________________________________________________________________________________

E-Mail Address _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Student Signature ____________________________________________________________  Date _________________________________________________

Return to Dr. Jame Schaefer, INEE Director, Theology Department, 115 Coughlin Hall
schaeferj@marquette.edu; www.inee.mu.edu
Declaration of Intent
INTERDISCIPLINARY MINOR IN ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS
College of Arts & Sciences, Marquette University

Student Name  ______________________________________________________________________________________________________

ID # ________________________________________  Expected Month/Year of Graduation _______________________________________

College or School at Marquette ______________________________________________________________________________________

Major/s  __________________________________________________________________________________________________________

Other Minor/s  _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Semester and Year INEE Required Courses Completed:

_____________________ Biology 040 Ecology or 140 Advanced Ecology (requires instructor’s consent to waive pre-requisites)

_____________________ Economics 163 Environmental & Natural Resource Economics (requires 43 or 44 and instructor’s consent;

_____________________ Philosophy 132 Environmental Philosophy (requires 050 and Junior standing)

_____________________ Physics 009 Earth & Environmental Physics or Civil Engineering 150 Environmental Engineering (CEEN majors)

_____________________ Theology 171 Foundations for Ecological Ethics (requires DOI, a second level course, and Junior standing)

_____________________ ARSC 110 INEE Capstone Seminar (requires instructor’s consent)

Semester and Year Complementary (not required) Courses Completed:

_____________________ Journalism 173 Health, Science, and Environmental Journalism

_____________________ Anthropology 110 Human Geography

_____________________ ARSC 120 Environment and The City

_____________________ Chemistry 008 Chemistry and The World

_____________________ English 198 Special Topics: Literature and the Environment

_____________________ Theology 170 Theology and the Natural Sciences

Local Address  ______________________________________________________________________________________________________

Telephone Number  __________________________________________________________________________________________________

E-Mail Address  _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Student Signature ____________________________________________________________

Date _________________________________________________

Return to Dr. Jame Schaefer, INEE Director, Theology Department, 115 Coughlin Hall

schaeferj@marquette.edu; www.inee.mu.edu
Declaration of Intent
INTERDISCIPLINARY MINOR IN ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS
College of Arts & Sciences, Marquette University

Student Name _____________________________________________________________

ID # _________________________ Expected Month/Year of Graduation ______________________

College or School at Marquette ________________________________________________

Major/s ________________________________________________________________

Other Minor/s ___________________________________________________________

Semester and Year INEE Required Courses Completed:

Biology 040 Ecology or 140 Advanced Ecology (requires instructor’s consent to waive pre-requisites)
Economics 163 Environmental & Natural Resource Economics (requires 43 or 44 and instructor’s consent;
Philosophy 132 Environmental Philosophy (requires 050 and Junior standing)
Physics 009 Earth & Environmental Physics or Civil Engineering 150 Environmental Engineering (CEEN majors)
Theology 171 Foundations for Ecological Ethics (requires DOI, a second level course, and Junior standing)
ARSC 110 INEE Capstone Seminar (requires instructor’s consent)

Semester and Year Complementary (not required) Courses Completed:

Journalism 173 Health, Science, and Environmental Journalism
Anthropology 110 Human Geography
ARSC 120 Environment and The City
Chemistry 008 Chemistry and The World
English 198 Special Topics: Literature and the Environment
Theology 170 Theology and the Natural Sciences

Local Address _______________________________________________________________

Telephone Number _________________________________________________________

E-Mail Address _____________________________________________________________

Student Signature _________________________________________________________

Date ______________________________

Return to Dr. Jame Schaefer, INEE Director, Theology Department, 115 Coughlin Hall
schaeferj@marquette.edu; www.inee.mu.edu
Declaration of Intent
INTERDISCIPLINARY MINOR IN ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS
College of Arts & Sciences, Marquette University

Student Name  ______________________________________________________________________________________________________

ID # ________________________________________  Expected Month/Year of Graduation _______________________________________

College or School at Marquette ________________________________________________________________________________________

Major/s  __________________________________________________________________________________________________________

Other Minor/s  _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Semester and Year INEE Required Courses Completed:

_____________________ Biology 040 Ecology or 140 Advanced Ecology (requires instructor’s consent to waive pre-requisites)

_____________________ Economics 163 Environmental & Natural Resource Economics (requires 43 or 44 and instructor’s consent;

_____________________ Philosophy 132 Environmental Philosophy (requires 050 and Junior standing)

_____________________ Physics 009 Earth & Environmental Physics or Civil Engineering 150 Environmental Engineering (CEEN majors)

_____________________ Theology 171 Foundations for Ecological Ethics (requires DOI, a second level course, and Junior standing)

_____________________ ARSC 110 INEE Capstone Seminar (requires instructor’s consent)

Semester and Year Complementary (not required) Courses Completed:

_____________________ Journalism 173 Health, Science, and Environmental Journalism

_____________________ Anthropology 110 Human Geography

_____________________ ARSC 120 Environment and The City

_____________________ Chemistry 008 Chemistry and The World

_____________________ English 198 Special Topics: Literature and the Environment

_____________________ Theology 170 Theology and the Natural Sciences

Local Address  ______________________________________________________________________________________________________

Telephone Number  __________________________________________________________________________________________________

E-Mail Address  _____________________________________________________________________________________________________

Student Signature ____________________________________________________________

Date _________________________________________________

Return to Dr. Jame Schaefer, INEE Director, Theology Department, 115 Coughlin Hall
schaeferj@marquette.edu  www.inee.mu.edu