Internship Opportunities: Fall 2015

Wisconsin League of Conservation Voters seeks interns for the fall 2015 semester

About the Wisconsin League of Conservation Voters
Wisconsin League of Conservation Voters is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization dedicated to electing conservation leaders, holding decision makers accountable and encouraging lawmakers to champion conservation policies that effectively protect Wisconsin’s public health and natural resources. For more information on the organization, visit www.conservationvoters.org.

Internship Responsibilities
Interns will learn more about the operations of nonprofit organizations and will work closely with experienced professional staff. Intern(s) will gain skills in field organizing and campaign tactics while also learning more about conservation policy. Those in the program will learn proven organizing skills to recruit, train, and mobilize volunteers to take action on federal, state, and local issues dealing with carbon pollution and climate change.

Reporting to the State Field Director, the Campaign Intern(s) will play a key role in supporting WLCV’s campaign efforts by: 1) Meeting member engagement campaign goals; 2) Engaging in direct member contact through canvasses, phone banks, and other campaign events; 3) Assisting in managing volunteer canvasses and phone banks; 4) Tracking member contact data.
